EMMANUEL MUSIC ANNOUNCES 40th ANNIVERSARY SEASON
UNDER THE DIRECTION OF NEWLY APPOINTED ARTISTIC DIRECTOR RYAN TURNER

JUNE 7, 2010 - BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS. On September 24, 2010 Emmanuel Music will kick off its 40th anniversary season under the direction of newly appointed Artistic Director Ryan Turner. Mr. Turner’s inaugural season Where Tradition Meets Innovation, will be a celebration of Emmanuel Music at its best. “Join me in celebrating the virtuosity and vitality of Emmanuel Music’s 40th season. With Bach as our core and weekly companion, we will draw upon the strengths of our past, with an eye to the future.” Mr. Turner continues, “Our new season will include an ode by Handel, the chamber music of Beethoven, and Stravinsky’s opera The Rake’s Progress. This program will highlight Boston’s most versatile ensemble.”

Ryan’s appointment came after an exhaustive two-year search to replace Emmanuel Music’s founder and long-time Artistic Director Craig Smith. “Ryan Turner, in addition to being an amazingly gifted young conductor, has in his years with Emmanuel Music developed a special understanding for the ensemble’s inner dynamic and a stirring vision of its future,” said composer John Harbison, Principal Guest Conductor. “He will bring imagination and daring to a musical institution poised to achieve great things.”

The Evening Concerts

- Alexander’s Feast- George Frideric Handel
  September 24, 2010 at 8PM, Emmanuel Church
  One of Handel’s most admired works, Alexander's Feast (or The Power of Music), is a setting of a poem by John Dryden written in honor of St. Cecilia, the patron saint of music. This festive ode by Handel opens the season in celebratory fashion, featuring both a large orchestra with horns, trumpets, and drums and many solos performed by well-known soloists from Emmanuel Music’s Chorus.

- The Rake’s Progress- Igor Stravinsky
  April 16, 2011 at 7:30PM, Emmanuel Church
  In 1951, Igor Stravinsky announced the death of Neoclassicism with the completion of his opera, The Rake’s Progress. Written in the style of Mozart and based on paintings by William Hogarth, it tells the tale of Tom Rakewell, who sells his soul to the devil when he inherits a mysterious fortune.

The Chamber Series-Beethoven

Sundays, October 31, November 14, 2010; February 13 & 27, 2011
4 PM, Parish Hall at Emmanuel Church

This year, Emmanuel embarks on a multi-year journey surveying the chamber and vocal music of Beethoven. From the early Opus 1 piano trios, to rarely performed chamber music for winds, to the soaring melody and passion of Beethoven’s vocal music, this series presents the breadth of emotion, talent and artistry of the Emmanuel musicians. This series continues the great Emmanuel Music tradition of acclaimed surveys of Brahms, Schubert, Schumann, and others.
